STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

Everyone who helped with Saturday’s “Kitchen Cleanup”.
Your help was greatly appreciated!

A Word from St. Mary’s Principal

Mary Queen of Angels Parishioners,

I just wanted to take a moment to thank you and celebrate the HUGE success of Saturday night’s event. If you have not heard, we were able to raise over $110,000. That is AMAZING!! We had hoped for $90-100K but this surpassed even our most optimistic dreams. All praise, thanksgiving, and glory to God!!

I also want to say Thank You to all of you. I have thanked our committee members publicly, but it would be impossible to list everyone that contributed to the success of Saturday night. So, so many of you gave your best gift to God and to His school. And as is ALWAYS the case, He received your gift, multiplied it, and will give it back to you many, many fold. That is the beauty of giving to God. He does not need our gifts. He only wants to take them, bless them, and then bestow something even better upon us. We serve such an awesome and gracious God!!! Deo Gratias!

This much I know- Our school and parish families cannot be outdone in their faith and service to Our Lord. We are not the most wealthy parish, but since we are the most faithful (or one of them!), He takes care of us.

I cannot say it enough today- Thank You so very much.

Glory and Praise to Our God!!
Pax Vobiscum,

Josh Regan

Glory Story

Acts 4:8-12 / Ps 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29 / 1 Jn 3:1-2 / Jn 10:11-18

Have you ever been in a situation where your time, talent and treasure resulted in something really wonderful accompanied with compliments and accolades aplenty? It would be easy to get caught up in the moment. Peter finds himself in one of those moments in today’s first reading—minus the compliments! Referring to the healing of a cripple, Peter credits, who? Not himself, but “Jesus Christ the Nazorean...whom God raised from the dead”. It takes intentionality and presence of mind to glorify God. We are stewards of God’s glory—whose glory story are you sharing?

GRADUATION MASS: High School and St. Mary’s School Graduates will be recognized at the 10:00am Mass on Sunday, May 12th. High School graduates, please wear your cap and gown.
